Insofar as necessary to meet a requirement under the Laws and Regulations, changes to the Terms and Conditions will be directly applicable and You will not have the ability to reject the changes. You can at all times download and read the most recent version of the Terms and Conditions on the Website.
- 2.6 By signing the Client Agreement You agree to receive on-topic updates in the form of emails throughout using the Services. By registering with Us, You also agree to conduct business with Us electronically and via the internet and receive all required notices and disclosures in an electronic format, including but not limited to email messages to an authorized email address that You have provided to Us. 5 Positions in money and Financial Instruments & deficit

- 5.1 The positions in money and Financial Instruments from You with BUX Custody (hereafter: Positions), will be held by third parties such as clearing members, security depositories custodians and central counterparties. The involved merits (such as - but not limited to - profits, dividend) and demerits (such as - but not limited to - bankruptcy of one of the third parties, taxes and/or other mandatory amounts by virtue of rules and regulations) of the Positions are for Your risk and account and will be credited to/ debited from your Account by BUX.
- 5.2 BUX will use best efforts in good faith to ensure that the value of all positions in money and Financial Instruments, which BUX and BUX Custody hold for Your account and Risk with third parties, corresponds with the value of all rights in money and Financial Instruments. BUX may refuse Orders until the moment BUX is able to allocate the Deficit. In case BUX finds out that the Deficit is caused by the failure of a Client to provide sufficient collateral of funding for its investments, then BUX will undo the Deficit at the expense of that Client. In case BUX will not be able to determine that the Deficit is caused by one or more specific Clients, BUX will allocate the Deficit to all Clients for whose Account such specific currency and or Financial Instrument (same ISIN) is or should be held, pro rata.

2. Client

Whereas

- You and BUX have entered into a Client Agreement on the basis of which BUX shall provide services in response to an assignment from You;
- Within the context of the provision of services to You, BUX holds Financial Instruments with BUX Custody;
- BUX would like to have the potential to use Your Financial Instruments and to lend them to a third party;
- In respect of lending Financial Instruments, BUX provides collateral to BUX Custody. As the custody agent, BUX Custody holds this collateral for the benefit of all the participating Clients.

BUX's services and the terms and conditions governing Securities Lending

1. Definitions

- 1.1 The terms used in this BUX Securities Lending Agreement have the same meaning as attributed to them in the Client Agreement, unless defined otherwise below:
 - a. Shares: the shares referred to in the Securities Lending Handbook, which the Client holds in his/her Account and, on the basis of this Securities Lending Agreement, may from time to time be used by BUX;
 - b. The Borrower: a party designated by BUX, as specified in more detail in the Securities Lending Handbook, with which BUX enters into loan transactions;
 - c. Collateral: the security that BUX provides to BUX Custody, consisting of a limited or equivalent right that BUX will establish or has established in favour of BUX Custody on any financial instruments or other goods belonging to BUX;
 - d. Securities Lending Handbook: the handbook which describes the obligations and rights of the Client in relation to Securities Lending, as well as the most important risks of Securities Lending;
 - e. Securities Lending Agreement: this BUX Securities Lending Agreement.

2. Securities Lending Agreement, priority, amendments

- 2.1 The Terms and Conditions of Securities Lending and the Securities Lending Handbook both apply to this Securities Lending Agreement and form an integral part of the Securities Lending Agreement.
- 2.2 By signing this Securities Lending Agreement, You declare You have received, read and understood the contents of this Securities Lending Agreement and the Securities Lending Handbook.
- 2.3 In the event of any conflict or inconsistency between the Securities Lending Agreement and the Securities Lending Handbook, the BUX Securities Lending Agreement has priority.
- 2.4 BUX is entitled to amend the Securities Lending Agreement unilaterally.

3. Terms & Conditions and Risks of Securities Lending

- 3.1 Hereby, You explicitly give consent to BUX to use Your Financial Instruments and to lend them to a Borrower. In this context, BUX shall at all times act as the counterparty of BUX Custody and shall be obliged to redeliver the Lent Financial Instruments, as specified in more detail in the Securities Lending Handbook.

- 3.2 If BUX Lends Financial Instruments, then there is no question of any asset separation in relation to those Financial Instruments and, at that moment, a claim for redelivery shall be established against BUX. Lending has no impact on the Value of a Client's Account: Client retains the legal right of redelivery against BUX, as specified in the Account Value. In reality, BUX Custody shall not hold the Financial Instruments concerned at that moment, but instead shall hold either money or other Financial Instruments or a security right on money or other Financial Instruments as collateral.
- 3.3 The Financial Instruments that are Lent shall be specified in BUX's administration as being allocated to one or more Clients on the basis of a predetermined allocation procedure.
- 3.4 To limit the risks associated with Lending Financial Instruments as far as possible, BUX is responsible for ensuring that BUX Custody continuously receives collateral which is worth at least the value of the Financial Instruments being Lent. The most significant risks are described in the Securities Lending Handbook. The Client declares that he/she is aware of, understands, and accepts the features and risks of Securities Lending.
- 3.5 BUX is not obliged to use the Financial Instruments.
- 3.6 You will lose Your voting rights on the Financial Instruments being used by BUX.
- 3.7 You will be entitled to monetary compensation if a dividend or other payment is made on the Financial Instruments that have been used, as specified in more detail in the Securities Lending Handbook.
- 3.8 You are aware that, by signing the Securities Lending Agreement, You lose Your rights of ownership on the Financial Instruments being used during the Lending period; as a result of which, during the Lending period, You will no longer enjoy the protection of Your ownership rights on the Financial Instruments which You would have enjoyed had the Financial Instruments not have been used.

4. Applicable law and competent court

- 4.1 This Agreement is governed by Dutch law.
- 4.2 In the event of any dispute between BUX and Client, this dispute will be submitted to the competent court in Amsterdam which has the jurisdiction to hear all disputes ensuing from this agreement.
